

Christina P. Stolz
“Life Bandmates” Scholarship

The family and friends of Christina Stolz established the Christina P. Stolz “Life Bandmates” Scholarship.

Christina Stolz was a 2011 graduate from Eden Prairie High School and was an active member of the Marching Band and several ensembles during her time at EPHS. The band was a significant source of pride for Christina and she developed close friendships as a result of her involvement with this wonderful community. She attended the U of MN as a Psychology major and joined the marching band and a number of ensembles while at school. She was an active volunteer at school, in the community and was willing to help anyone who was in need.
